

Arts Forum Supporters!

We are writing with a special invitation.

Please join us at Yerba Buena Center for the Arts (screening room - enter through 701 Mission Street) on Thursday, November 20th from 11:00 to 1:00 PM for a live briefing on the outcome of the election at the federal and state levels. Americans for the Arts staff will provide a review of possible cultural policy direction at the White House, the newly-elected members of Congress and the changes in state leadership and ballot initiatives. Hosted virtually by Americans for the Arts and locally by Yerba Buena Center for the Arts, this event is a collaborative effort between Yerba Buena Center for the Arts, Intersection for the Arts, Theatre Bay Area, California Arts Advocates, and Arts Forum SF.

Our goal is to bring together artists, community leaders and policymakers in order to build on the momentum of the national elections and work together to create the necessary networks to ensure that President Elect Obama's arts policies can be moved into action across the country.

With limited space, we must ask everyone to let us know if you plan to attend.

Please RSVP to clay@theatrebayarea.org

Regards,

Ken Foster, Executive Director, Yerba Buena Center for the Arts

Brad Erickson, Executive Director, Theatre Bay Area

Deborah Cullinan, Executive Director, Intersection for the Arts

P.S. Even if you can not attend, you can register now with the Americans for the Arts Arts Action Fund to watch the webinar live by following this link:
