

Free Workshop and Community Discussion for Los Angeles' Arts and Culture Sector

CA Arts Advocates legislative agenda update followed by the Americans for the Arts Webinar: Election Update and Arts in the New Federal Administration

John Gallogly, Executive Director of Theatre West and Board member for CA Arts Advocates, will lead a discussion on the future of arts and culture sector in California. This discussion will be followed by an Americans for the Arts Government Affairs staff briefing (via webinar) on the outcome of the elections at the federal and state levels. The webinar will include a review of possible cultural policy direction at the White House, the newly-elected members of Congress and the changes in state leadership and ballot initiatives.

Americans for the Arts webinars are 90-minute online seminars on a current topic, issue, or trend. This new media platform enables a high level of interaction with the presenter, other attendees, and the content.

When: Thursday, November 20, 2008

- 10:00 AM – Coffee and registration
- 10:30 AM – Discussion facilitated by John Gallogly. Participants include Malissa Feruzzi Shriver, Dale Franzen, Danielle Brazell, Terence McFarland, and other arts partners.
- 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM – Webinar hosted by Americans for the Arts

Where: The Eli and Edythe Broad Stage
11th and Santa Monica Blvd, Santa Monica, CA

Directions: <http://www.thebroadstage.com/pages/directions.php>

Space is limited. Please RSVP to http://www.artsforla.org/forum/obamas_policy
Please include your name, name of your organization, telephone number and email address.

Free Parking at Broad Stage. Overflow parking $5 at Santa Monica Library 601 Santa Monica Blvd, enter on 7th Street.

Partners:

- Americans for the Arts
- Santa Monica City College
- The Broad Stage
- Arts for LA
- California Arts Advocates